

25 August 2014

By email to: [REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

I refer to your Freedom of Information request received on 20 August 2014 about CBI payments.

I can confirm that the University does not hold the information requested.

The University's Response

I am writing to obtain information about the amount your organisation pays to the Confederation of British Industry and its subsidiaries.

Please provide the amount paid to the CBI (and its regional subsidiaries)

- (a) in membership fees
- (b) fees for one off conferences or other events and
- (c) fees paid to the CBI for any other services.

Please make clear if the response includes payments from any Non-Departmental Public Bodies, Executive Agencies etc which fall under the department and please provide a breakdown of what payments came from which agency/body.

Please provide this information for the period 2009-2014 set out by calendar or financial year.

If you are unable to provide all of this information within the time/cost limit please work up to the limit focusing on membership fees."

No payments have been made, so the information requested is therefore "not held" in terms of section 17 of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002.

This concludes the University's response

Your right to seek a review of how your information request was managed

If you are not satisfied with our response or our reasoning set-out above, you have forty working days in which to request a review of our decision. Any request should be put in writing and should be sent to the University Secretary, Abertay University, at the address provided below. The request should:

- (a) detail your request for a review of our decision to be undertaken

- (b) describe the nature of your original request
- (c) explain the reasons why you are dissatisfied with our response
