SCHOLARSHIP BACKGROUND AND INFORMATION

The Thorntons Law Scholarship will be awarded to one 3rd or 4th year student on the LLB (Hons) Law degree at Abertay.

Students who have overcome challenging circumstances to attend university, are from a low-income background, and/or have caring responsibilities will benefit from the scholarship. However, the student who can demonstrate within their application how the scholarship can benefit them and has ambitions to work in Law after they graduate will receive the scholarship.

History of Thorntons

Thorntons can trace its roots back to 1857 when Sir Thomas Thornton began a legal practice in Dundee. Through the generations, Thorntons has grown to become one of Scotland's largest and most successful full service firms with offices across the east of Scotland.

Thorntons are passionate about supporting communities and have worked with Abertay University for many years. They have supported Abertay through prizes, work placements, and by being involved in Dundee Business School events.

WHAT KIND OF FUNDING IS AVAILABLE?
